Hunt, Cavazos lead Eagles on Senior day

By John Harvey

JAMES CITY — Abby Hunt and Clare Cavazos made the most of their final regular season tennis match, leading Jamestown to a 9-0 victory over Grafton.

The win locked up the No.2 seed in the Bay Rivers District standings and secured a spot in the Region I tournament.

Hunt cruised to a 6-2, 6-4 victory over Kayla Jefferson at No.2 singles.

Cavazos rolled to a 6-1, 6-0 win over Marisa Mosier at No.6 singles for the Eagles.

Leah Water continued her dominance with a 6-2, 6-0 victory over Sydney Short at No.1 singles.

Elizabeth Wallace defeated Sophia Lin 6-3, 6-0 at No.3 singles.

Kathy Sharp made short work of Jordan Keith at No.4 singles, winning 6-1, 6-2. Kristen Lilley outlasted Trilby Brush 7-6, 7-5 at No.5 singles.

In doubles action, Walter and Hunt defeated Jefferson and Lin 8-3.

Wallace and Sharp posted an 8-3 win over Short and Jordan Keith at No.2 doubles.Lilley and Sarah Reso capped the victory with a 9-8 (7-5) win over Brush and April Keith at No.3 doubles.

Warhill girls — Tabb High’s girls tennis team swept all three doubles matches to post a 6-3 victory over visiting Warhill in the regular season finale.

The Lions looked sharp early on, winning the first three singles matches.

Brook Byrd outlasted Taylor Hogge 6-3, 6-4 at No.1 singles. Molley Jessman defeated Laken Hendron 6-1, 7-5 at No.2 singles. Hannah Richard outlasted Nikki Hendron 6-2, 6-2 at No.3 singles.

The Tigers responded with three singles wins of their own.

Alyssa Purdy beat Alex Gruendl 6-0, 6-0 at No.4 singles. Megan Gaudette beat Lauren Turner 6-1, 6-1 at No.5 singles. Macey Sandford (T) edged Sarah Tolley 6-2, 6-2 to even the match at 3-3.

In doubles, Hogge and Purdy defeated Byrd and Gruendl 8-2 in the top spot.

Laken Hendron and Nikki Hendron then defeated Richard and Jessman 8-2 at No.2 doubles.

Oliva Craig and Kathleen Krist sealed the victory at No.3 doubles with an 8-3 win over Olivia Craig and Kathleen Krist.

Lafayette boys — Ethan Buck and Vraj Gajjar posted victories in singles and doubles for York High’s boys tennis team during Thursday’s 6-3 loss to visiting Lafayette.

Cole Fairbanks turned in a brilliant effort at No.1 singles for the Rams, outlasting Aaron Chang 7-6 (8-6), 3-6, 1-0 (14-12).

David Anderson edged Correy Xu 6-3, 6-2 at No.3 singles for the Rams.

Buck defeated Connor McGinty 6-3, 6-0 at No.2 singles for York. Gajjar beat Brendan Wang 6-1, 6-3 at No.4 singles.

Daniel Chow then rallied to beat Drew Fairbanks 3-6, 6-3, 1-0 (10-6) at No.5 singles.

Scott Cabaniss beat Alec Gillian 6-2, 6-4 at No.6 singles to take a 4-2 lead.

The Falcons won two tough doubles matches to seal the win.

Chong and Buck beat Lafayette’s top tandem of Cole Fairbanks and McGinty 8-4. Gajjar and Chow edge Anderson and Gillian at No.2 doubles.

Drew Fairbanks and Cabaniss and Billy Cole for Lafayette’s (8-3) lone doubles win.

Warhill boys — Chiraag Shetty won in singles and doubles to lead Tabb’s boys tennis team to a 5-4 victory over Warhill (5-6) on Thursday.

The Lions were strong in singles, posting four victories.

Vishal Patel made short work of John Svendsen 6-1, 6-0 at No.2 singles. Mac Von Appen defeated Nil Amin 6-3, 6-1 at No.3 singles.

Koby Arndt outlasted Andrew Fallacara 6-3, 6-4 at No.5 singles. Jonathan Smith edged Connor Meehan 6-2, 6-2 at No.6 singles.

Tabb countered as Shetty defeated Jules Clayton 6-1, 6-0 at No.1 singles. Michael Shintaku edged Andrew Clayton 7-6 in the first set before having to retire because of an injury.

In doubles, Shetty and Ryan Taylor defeated Patel and Von Appen 8-4 at No.1 doubles.

Shintaku and Fallacara edged Arndst and Joey Burns 9-7 at No.2 doubles to tie the match at 4-4.

In the deciding game, Svendsen and Amin edged Jonathan Smith and Alvin Mu 8-3 at No.3 doubles.

Bruton boys — Kurt Mittman and Patrick Riley won at singles and doubles, but it wasn’t enough as Bruton dropped a 5-4 decision to Poquoson on Tuesday.

Mittman defeated Tyler Cruz 6-3, 6-3 at No.1 singles for Bruton (2-7). Riley won a marathon match at No.2 singles, defeating Austin Gillem 6-3, 7-6 (6-2).

Kyle McLaughlin defeated Tyler Moore 6-3, 7-5 at No.5 singles to give the Panthers three singles victories.

Poquoson (7-2) answered with Billy Clifford’s 6-3, 7-5 victory over Christopher Shafer at No.3 singles. Nathan Lauffenberger beat Chris Sarran 6-2, 6-4 at No.4 singles and Royce Bowden rolled to a 6-2, 6-0 win over Hunter Mitchell to even the match at 3-3.

In doubles, Mittman and Riley defeated Gillem and Clifford 8-3 .

Cruz and Bowden responded with an 8-3 victory over McLaughlin and Shafer at No.2 doubles.

The Islanders capped the victory as Brandon Royal and Brandon Reiber defeated Jesse Burbank and Chris Smith 8-1 at No.3 doubles.

keeper Nikki Pratt for an early lead.

Perkins, Laurel and Elberfeld tallied two shots apiece during the next 15 minutes, but were unable to find the back of the net. The best chance came in the 28th minute on a free kick, but Nikki Pratt made a nice save on Perkins’ free kick from 20 yards out to keep her team in the game.

A minute later, Atlantic Shores tallied the equalizer on a free kick from about 20 yards out. The sophomore forward ripped a shot over keeper Kate Powell’s head inside the back post to tie the game at 1-1.

Williamsburg Christian answered just before halftime, thanks to an infraction in the scoring area.

Elberfeld found some space in the scoring area and was taken down by an Atlantic Shores defender, resulting in a penalty kick.

Duncan stepped up to the line and hammered a shot past a diving keeper for a 2-1 lead.

The Seahawks responded early in the second half with a goal in the 45th minute.

Danielle Pratt used her speed to get behind the Eagles defense on the right wing and slipped a pass to Erin Murphy unmarked in front of the goal. The eighth-grader calmly chipped a shot past Powell to tie the game at 2-2.

The Seahawks continued to put pressure on Williamsburg Christian’s defense and were rewarded 10 minutes later when Danielle Pratt was fouled in the scoring area.

The sophomore took the penalty kick herself, ripping a shot inside the left post for a 3-2 lead.

The Eagles didn’t go away quietly and had a chance to tie the game with 10 minutes left.

Elberfeld found space inside the scoring area, but her blast caromed off the left post and out of play.

Proposed Plan for Groundwater at
Site 22 Burn Pad
Naval Weapons Station Yorktown

The Department of the Navy invites public comments on the Site 22 Burn Pad Proposed Plan that presents information pertaining to the recommend final clean-up alternative for groundwater at this Environmental Restoration Program (ERP) site at Naval Weapons Station (WPNSTA) Yorktown located in Yorktown, Virginia. In accordance with the Code of Federal Regulation, 40 C.F.R. § 300.430(f) (2), this Proposed Plan presents an assessment of risk to human health and the environment, and the recommended final clean-up alternative was selected based the results of a comparative analysis of the nine evaluation criteria identified in the National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan (NCP).

The recommended final clean-up alternative includes: hot spot treatment of hexahydro-1,3,5-trinitro-1,3,5-triazine (RDX) using Enhanced In Situ Bioremediation and associated performance monitoring; monitored natural attenuation of RDX, trichloroethene, and vinyl chloride; and land use controls. This Proposed Plan is based on findings contained in documents that are part of the Administrative Record for Site 22 at WPNSTA Yorktown. The Administrative Record provides background information on this site and is available on the WPNSTA Yorktown public website at <http://go.usa.gov/yFb>. This Proposed Plan may be viewed at the following location from May 14, 2012 through June 28, 2012 during normal business hours:
